Recommended if you own Arcania and get it on sale. More an extension/final chapter than a standalone game. Good for 8-12 hours of gameplay. Has the same strengt's and weaknesses than Arcania.. Awesome poker game that gives a story and senario to the game than just cards. I have a soft spot for these sort of tongue-in-cheek sexploitation games, but this one is just way too brutal. Most of them give some sort of absurd barely-plausible reason why the protagonist is always having sex, but this one just starts with a whole bunch of flat-out zero-consent prison torture and serial♥♥♥♥♥♥ Awful. Uninstalled.. good game needs work and more players
. Recommended.

Story...

The title of this game hints to a story, perhaps to a story on a deeper level. It sounds like the game would happen between two deities who both want something. That sounded extremely interesting to me. While I didn't expect too in-depth background due to the type of this game, I was still disappointed by the lack of it. There are exactly two cut scenes, at the beginning and at the end. The title mislead me quite well for making me believe something particularly exciting would happen between the packs you have to finish.

Characters...

There's not much to the characters and that's not really surprising. Still, the two main characters (and I use that term loosely) have a connection to each other. It's hard to tell what kind of relationship it is, because they never, even once, speak. So in that as well, the characters lacked depth.

Gameplay...

It's very simple, but nice nonetheless, if you know what to expect. I expected the Fever Mode to be a timed version of the main game, but it's not. You have a certain time to finish a mosaic and you gain more time every time you finish one. So you can go on as long as you have time. It was a pleasant surprise for me, since I typically do not like timed versions. It was a nice add to the slower, more relaxed version. If you start with a Fever Mode, maybe the game mechanics work differently? That I can't say.

Art...

When you first begin the game, the main screen has BEAUTIFUL art. It was gorgeous, and had quite sharp details. The colors were wonderful too. It was pleasant to look at and I expected it to apply to the whole game.

But. I was once again disappointed. The cut scene animations don't have similar style at all. Admittedly, animations rarely look as good as the main art. But the level dropped down a lot, almost made it look ugly. Visually appealing games are my thing, so to be first introduced to an amazing view and then to have it change... It was a true shame. The only good thing is, that there were only two cut scenes.

As for mosaics, all of the packs had different textures. From glass-like to rough, it was interesting - and some of the textures made the gameplay more challenging.

Music...

I loved the music. It hit me immediately when I began the game. I actually wished that I could listen to it some more, which is rare for me. I liked the main tune the best, but the others were quite pleasant to listen to too.

Conclusion...

I enjoyed this game enough to recommend it. It might typical to this type of game, but it has a good soundtrack, mosaics with different textures and two modes. Achievements were nice and not too hard to get. And it's not horribly pricy either.. After latest Windows 10 update, AGKVR doesn't render to HMD.

I tried graphic driver reinstall, Appgamekit reinstall, Steam client reinstall and OS clean install... but no effect.

So, I do not recommend it if you plan to use this DLC from now on.. seasons pass isnt working

Super Ledgehop: Double Laser has neither ledge-hopping nor dual lasers (single lasers ok), but its a unique bullet hell game. It offers absorb and reflect mechanics for enemy bullets allowing you to turn their own attacks back against them! The levels are varied enough and there are enough enemy types to keep it interesting and it scales overall well. Game has a few surprises here and there but its story is pretty much just a meme, take it for what you will. Overall full recommend, I am looking forward to more from these LAME-Developers.

Play it with a controller if you want hardmode....and remember.....

Shoot First! Friends Later.. If you like fault and the art of Hare Konatsu, then I'd recommend this. Very fun game but very short. Beat it in 1.5 hours. It gives you lots of control options thankfully. I dont like teleportation movement and click turning and thankfully this gives nyou smooth turning and normal locomotion with the thumb sticks. Gameplay is simple enough go through a mission kill all the baddies and fight a boss at the end. You get two guns which can get special abilities. There are no other guns besides the pistols. Some of the levels are really really reddish and gave me flash backs of playing the Nintendo Virtual boy lol.

A few of the boss fights will really have you crouching and dodging all over the place which if you dont have the best knees the crouching part isnt all that fun but thankfully its very minimal. Game ran very smooth, didnt run into any bugs. I'd recomend getting it but on sale for around 50% off because it isnt very long.. This game looks and plays great. There could always be more content but it's def one of the best sports games on the vive.. Dirving the Caterham cars around Brands Hatch, Cadwell Park and Oulton Park is insanely fun and worth the 36,99\u20ac

If the seasonpass is on sale it's defently worth picking up. An absolutely gorgeous game with an amazing soundtrack you'll want to keep listening to. It really is art, every frame is worthy of a screenshot and the animation is both fluid and visually interesting. The OST and visuals work to pull at your heartstrings even as the story is left fairly open-ended for the player to determine. I definitely felt my eyes tear up during a few cutscenes.

As far as gameplay, I really enjoy puzzles and these were challenging enough to stump me a couple times while still feel satisfying to complete. Some jumps take a little more precise timing and skill to complete.

Highly recommend. I hope more games take a similar route.. epic and awesome 2 thumbs up ^ _ ^ . Not very difficult, and not very long, but very nicely done. A relaxing puzzle game. And, of course, can't argue with the price.. How can this have even one positive review? Are they insiders? Scammers? Is it the first game they've ever played? Cause it's awful. Truly awful in every way.
