I really enjoy this game, but it is a very niche product. If you enjoy the character variation of MOBAs (lots of characters with different passive/active abilities, ultimates, gaining items, etc) and you also like survival games with permadeath (first death = you're out of the match), then you'll enjoy this and it's at least worth the price of entry to check it out. I am looking forward to future development of the game and seeing the population grow more. But definitely check this one out if you like MOBAs and survival / Battle Royale type games.. Do you like PBUG or any stand alone king of the hill game? While the idea is not new, the style of this game is interesting and refreshing.. Good game, but the lag is insane.. Interesting idea.. Looks fine, but needs more players and activities.
